Inetum appoints Marie-Claude Chazot Human Resources Director for the Euromed zone

Inetum, European leader in digital services, announces the appointment of Marie-Claude Chazot as Human Resources Director for the Euromed region. In this role, she will oversee all HR teams in France, Belgium, Morocco and Tunisia, with a view to developing regional synergies in support of the Group's growth.

Marie-Claude Chazot is also joining the Management Committee of François Fleutiaux, CEO Inetum Euromed, and will report to Bruno Da Sola, Chief People Officer of the Inetum Group.

Marie-Claude Chazot, Inetum's Euromed HR Director: "I'm delighted to be joining Inetum to help structure the Euromed zone and support the HR teams in implementing ambitious levers for talent development, training and inclusion."

In her new role, she will be responsible for supporting the development ambitions within the Euromed zone, by deploying structural initiatives for the region's 10,000 employees, such as:

- Supporting career development.
- Strengthening training programs.
- Developing the Women@Inetum program.

Marie-Claude Chazot's biography: With over 20 years' experience in the international HR field, Marie-Claude has built her career in demanding technological environments. Before joining Inetum, she held a number of management positions at Sage, including the position of Vice President People, where she steered the transformation of the HR operating model for the entire group. She has also worked at Signify, Colt, Microsoft, Hewlett-Packard and Symphony Services, in strategic roles focused on transformation, performance and employee engagement.
